EXHIBIT A

GUIDELINES GOVERNING FIRST DAY MATTERS

The procedures set forth below concern the submission and entry of first day motions to guide the orderly administration of newly filed Chapter 11 cases throughout the District of New Jersey. This will enable both the Court and practitioners to understand the procedures in advance and ensure that motions and corresponding relief they seek conform to procedures that have been generally approved by the Court. Accordingly, the following guidelines governing first day matters have been approved by the Court.

A. DEFINITION

1. A "First Day Matter" is defined as a motion filed simultaneously with the Chapter 11 petition which, in the opinion of counsel, requires expedited consideration by the Court within two business days of the filing.

2. While the relief requested by counsel will be considered by the Court, those First Day Matters which seek extraordinary relief will be granted in the Court's discretion only upon good cause shown.

B. FILING THE REQUEST

3. If a debtor in a Chapter 11 case has matters requiring expedited consideration by the Court, it should submit an Application For Expedited Consideration Of First Day Matters in the standard form attached hereto as Schedule "1," together with a proposed form of Order Regarding Application For Expedited Consideration Of First Day Matters in the standard form attached hereto as Schedule "2." Counsel shall file their respective pleadings with the Court leaving a blank for the return date.

4. First Day Matters shall be supported by certification(s).

5. The Court shall issue its Order Regarding Application For Expedited Consideration Of First Day Matters and immediately advise Debtor's counsel of same.

C. SERVICE

6. Counsel for the Debtor shall:

- (a) notify by telecopy and serve electronically, if the e-mail address is available, (or by overnight delivery or immediate hand delivery) a copy of the Application For Expedited Consideration and supporting documents, upon all affected parties, including the United States Trustee, simultaneously with filing same with the Court; and

- (b) notify by telecopy and serve electronically, if the e-mail address is available (or by overnight delivery or hand delivery) a copy of the Court's Order Regarding Application For Expedited Consideration, upon all affected parties, including the United States Trustee, within one (1) business day, after receipt of said Order.

D. Objections/Responses to First Day Matters

7. Objection(s) and/or response(s) to First Day Matter(s) may be filed with the Court anytime prior to the hearing(s) on the First Day Matter(s). The Court will also entertain any oral objection(s) and/or response(s) to a First Day Matter(s) at the time of hearing(s).

8. Should a matter for which expedited consideration is requested in the Application For Expedited Consideration Of A First Day Matter(s) is sought and is not set down for hearing as a First Day Matter, but yet scheduled for hearing on an expedited basis, it is incumbent upon movant's counsel to inquire from the Court the deadline(s) for filing and serving objection(s) upon all parties in interest of the objection deadline and method by which the Court will entertain objection(s) and/or response(s) in writing to all parties in interest within one (1) business day of the Court's decision as to the objection/response deadline, service of objection/response and the acceptable method of objecting and/or responding to a matter.
